He is a great instructor
The instructor is already very supportive and thoughtful toward students. It would be cool if they started using more real-life examples or fun group work to help us understand things better.

continue to give incentives for students to come to class
Great at communicating and connecting with students making sure that we all understand before moving on. Doesn't over complicate things. Makes something difficult to learn easy to learn.
Extra Credit. Good incentive for students to come to class!
